

Do You Want State Prohibition In 1917?

If so, elect Dr. H. W. Lewis, the Prohibition candidate for Governor, on November 7th; and with a majority or both houses of the Legislature favoring Prohibition, a DRY STATE NEXT YEAR is absolutely assured.

If Governor Ferguson is re-elected, ALL Prohibition legislation will be promptly vetoed, and there is not a two-thirds majority in the Legislature to overcome his veto.

ELECT DR. LEWIS, and you rebuke the high-handed outrage of the San Antonio and Houston conventions, and redeem Texas. Elect Ferguson, and you give endorsement by your vote to all that he stands for, and help to fasten the liquor traffic on the State two years more.

The PROHIBITION voters of Texas will ELECT Ferguson or Lewis. Governor Ferguson CANNOT be re-elected by the booze vote in this State, if the temperance element vote for Lewis. If you, Mr. Temperance Voter, do not want to shoulder the responsibility for two years more of the licensed liquor traffic, then VOTE FOR DR. LEWIS.

Even if the breaking of faith at San Antonio and Houston did not release every prohibition Democrat from any obligation to support that ticket; the duty of every citizen TO HIS STATE—above that to any party—demands his support of Lewis.

Look for Dr. Lewis' name in the Prohibition column; and be sure that you SCRATCH THE NAMES OF ALL OTHER CANDIDATES FOR GOVERNOR. A line run through ALL other tickets than the Prohibition ticket, would register a vote not only for Lewis and State Prohibition, but for NATIONAL Prohibition as well.

RICE SCRUBS TOO STRONG FOR ALLEN

Allen Team Put Up a Plucky Fight, but Age, Weight and Experience Prevailed Against Them.

Playing against a team that was way out of their class in weight, experience and age, besides having the advantage of the home gridiron, the Allen Academy football team was overwhelmed Monday afternoon in Houston by Coach Cummings' Rice scrubs by a score of 47 to 0. In spite of the disparity of the scoring, which would indicate a walk-away for the collegians, the game was not uninteresting and was at times replete with sensational plays by both teams.

In the Rice lineup were several men who are of decidedly varsity caliber, and were it not for the severe eligibility rules and the high standard of scholarship demanded by the Institute authorities they would be wearing the gray and blue of the first team. Drummond, who starred at half, was at one time chosen for all-state quarter, and wears the big white "A" of Austin College. Both Clark and Clyde, a pair that figured prominently in the scoring, are letter men of last year.

Realizing the fact that in straight line plunging they would have no chance against the hefty Owlets, and early taking cognizance of the excellent work of the Rice ends in sifting through interference and breaking up end runs, the Allen quarter centered his chances of winning on the precarious forward pass. That he lost was not the fault of DeLafosse, who shot a number of long and accurate forward ward passes to the place where, in accordance with the most approved theory of football, his ends should be. To fast work and quick judgment of the Rice backs foiled his attempts.

Early in the game Hatter, one of the best half backs in prep and scholastic football, was hurt and taken from the game, and with his passing the star of hope declined for Allen Academy. While he was in action Rice was unable to score. His work together with that of DeLafosse at quarter, and Neuman at half, was the outstanding feature of the academy offense and defense. And at times the line held against the terrific pounding of the heavy Rice backs.

Coach "Brit" Hudson has but two old players on his team, and not one of his men is over 19 years of age. He is facing the task of building up an organization from practically green material. The inexperience of the men showed up most lamely in their tackling. This was made even worse by the clean cut and effective work of the Owlets. In tackling Arbuckle stands pre-eminent and Cummings is following his system.—Houston Post.

MEXICAN ASKS TO SERVE HIS TERM

After Escaping From Jail and Having Freedom for Two Years, Gives Himself Up to Officers.

(By Associated Press)

Laredo, Texas, Oct. 31.—Jesus de los Santos, a Mexican of the lower class, has asked the district court of Webb county for permission to serve out a prison term of two years. It was granted.

Four years ago De Los Santos was arrested here, indicted by a grand jury and later sentenced to serve two years in the state penitentiary for having permitted gambling on premises under his control. Before his sentence was carried out, De Los Santos made an appeal to a higher court. In the meantime, however, he escaped from the county jail. His whereabouts were a mystery until he presented himself before District Attorney John A. Valls. His case had been carried to the court of criminal appeals and the two-year sentence affirmed.

When Santos presented himself to the authorities he said he had been miserable through being forced to live away from his friends. He said he wanted to serve his sentence, return to his home and live a model life.

County officers furnished him with a copy of the court's judgment and directed him to proceed without guard to the penitentiary at Huntsville and present himself for commitment.

M. H. Ford, vice president, agriculture.

R. L. Watson, secretary-treasurer, mechanical engineering.

W. R. Alexander, agriculture.

G. Crutchfield, electrical engineering.

I. Dameron, architectural engineering.

M. J. Fahey, agriculture.

L. J. Goree, Jr., agriculture.

C. E. Heard, agriculture.

J. Thornhill, mechanical engineering.

M. P. Wilkerson, general science.

Dr. W. B. Blizzell, honorary member.

Some of these boys are here under difficulties. One is working his entire way through school while three others are helping to defray part of their expenses. The A. and M. band and football team each have a member from this club. This is the first Navasota club that has ever been organized at A. and M. and the members will endeavor to make it one of the liveliest clubs at College.
